Peter has been a full time professional and enthusiastic calligrapher for over 45 years, working in a studio producing Books of Remembrances, Civic and Royal Certificates, etc.

He has taught widely throughout the UK and Europe as well as Japan, Hong Kong, South Africa, and travelled to the US 3 or 4 times every year for 28 consecutive years. He has taught at over 25 International Conventions in the US, Canada, and Europe. In 2006, he moved permanently to Tennessee to marry Sherri; where they now live and still teach weekends and longer workshops throughout the US and Canada. They teach private classes on Traditional Gilding, Letterforms and Layout and Design, etc. in their own home at a more focused and student-specific level.

After a brief introduction to Mr. Adolf Bernd and his wonderful painted letters, this workshop will begin with a gentle review of colour and tonal exercises in both 'harmony' and 'contrasts' that are an integral part of Adolf Bernd's letters.

We shall then focus on a greater tonal subtlety as seen in his work with projects using natural objects as he did himself. Also there will be exercises that explore the rich reservoir of the many subtleties found in 'neutrals' and 'greys,' both 'warm,' 'cool,' and 'inert,' that will give us a more sustained sense of beauty and satisfaction.

We shall then begin to work on the Adolf Bernd Letters in a gentle progression, before working on the backgrounds and a unique feature of his work, what I call 'Adolf Bernd moments,' where he intentionally interrupts the repetition of rote habit by quietly, secretly breaking the patterns of our expectation.

So by using the subtlety of watercolours, the contrast or complimentary backgrounds, in two quite differing methods, we shall produce letters that delight both the eye of the artist and the viewer.
