Nina Tran is a wife to a loving husband and a mom to 3 energetic kids in the San Fernando Valley. She has been practicing and promoting calligraphy and penmanship since 2015. While she is still and will always be a student, she is passionate and enthusiastic about sharing and teaching her growing knowledge of the pointed pen. Her main focus of study are Copperplate Script, Spencerian Script, and Gothicized Italic.

When not practicing at her desk, folding laundry, or picking up kids from school, she also enjoys morning walks, knitting, and tending to her balcony garden.

Join us for a day of flourishing!

What is flourishing?

Flourishing is the decorative, playful, and elegant embellishment of letters and words. Flourishes create movement and bring letters to life.

In this class, we'll learn how to create simple to elaborate flourish-es. Although the exemplar we will follow is based on Copperplate script, the concepts and strokes can be applied to Spencerian script and modern calligraphy as well.

Level: Pointed pen experience needed.

PayPal option available online:
