ABOUT JANE

Jane Shibata is an adjunct faculty member in the art department at Santa Monica College and runs a design business specializing in the lettering arts in Los Angeles. Jane was a former City of Los Angeles calligrapher and currently does calligraphic contract work for the Los Angeles County Graphic Arts division. She is a long-time Sfc member who has served on the board, currently the outreach chair, coordinated outreach events, and taught many workshops for the Society for Calligraphy, other guilds in California and other states, Sfc Letters conference, and four international calligraphy conferences.

ABOUT THE WORKSHOP

Even though uncial has been around for thousands of years, it is still a relevant hand that can be adapted in the 21st century. It is an alphabet that utilizes only capitals and its simplicity is deceiving. We will concentrate on the basic forms and characteristics of the fifth century uncial to capture the beautiful qualities of the letterforms. I will also briefly introduce a few simple modifications at the end of the second day to make it contemporary. We will be writing the entire time, but there may be time to do one broadside. All levels welcome.

Workshops are limited to 20 participants. Enrollment is limited to current paid Society for Calligraphy members only. Your membership must be current at time of sign-up as well as when class is held. No reservation will be held until your dues are current. If your membership lapses, you become ineligible and your space will be filled from the waiting list. Sign-ups are accepted in advance on a first come, first served basis. No refunds unless your place can be filled from a wait list. If you must cancel, please allow sufficient time for your place to be filled. For confirmation and prompt receipt of supply list, we recommend that your check arrive no later than two weeks before the workshop.
